INSTRUCTIONS, &c.

A.O. 1.—Promotions to Second-Lieutenancies.

Secretary of State's Instructions on the Warrant for Pay, &c., 1895.

1. With reference to Art. 1(d) of the Royal Warrant for Pay, &c., the Secretary of State has decided that, on and after the 1st January, 1896, recommendations for promotions to second-lieutenancies of warrant officers or non-commissioned officers shall, except in the case of candidates who have performed specially meritorious service, or distinguished service in the field, only be entertained on the following conditions:—

(a.) That the candidate for promotion shall, when recommended—

(1.) Not be of a lower rank than that of corporal.

(2.) Have not less than two years' service.

(3.) Be under 24 years of age.

(b.) That the candidate shall, when selected—

(1.) Have attained the rank of sergeant and be under 26 years of age.

(2.) Hold a 1st class certificate of education, including English history and general geography, or possess the qualifications which are accepted in lieu thereof, as laid down in the Army School Regulations.

(3.) Have a clear regimental defaulters sheet.

(4.) Be unmarried.

2. Army Order 137 of 1893 is hereby cancelled.

A.O. 2.—The General Chain of Command in a Fortress, and its connection with the Artillery Chain of Command.

[ISSUED AS A SPECIAL ARMY ORDER ON THE 10TH DECEMBER 1895.]

1. Every fortress will be under the command of a "fortress commander," and be divided into "sections," each under a "section commander," who will be responsible generally for his section of defence.

2. (i.) Each section command will include the portion of the garrison allotted for its defence, and the fire commands within its area.

(ii.) The boundaries of section commands will be so traced as to include entire fire commands. A fire command must never be partly in one section and partly in another, except to the extent provided for in (iii.).

(iii.) All personnel and matériel will follow the guns, i.e., officers, men, and instruments will belong to the fire command in which their guns are situated, even when their stations are topographically in another section or fire command.

3. The general chain of command and the communications will invariably run from the "fortress commander," through "section commanders," to "fire commanders," with which latter officers the chain of artillery command will commence.

4. The fire command will be the highest unit of executive artillery command.

The fire commander will be under the immediate orders of, and be in communication with, the "section commander."

The chain of artillery command will invariably run from the "fire commander," through the "battery commanders," to the "gun-group commanders."

5. The general or other officer commanding Royal Artillery will be employed on the staff of the "fortress commander." In some few cases, the paucity of officers may render it necessary for the officer commanding to act as a "section" or "fire" commander; but such cases must be exceptional, and exceptionally treated.

A.O. 3.—Reliefs, 1896-97.

1. The programme of certain intended reliefs in the United Kingdom and Colonies, and between them and India, during the year 1896-97 (subject to such modifications as may from time to time be necessitated by unforeseen circumstances), is published herewith for the information of all concerned. (See Appendix, pp. 186 to 188.)

2. The reliefs of the cavalry will be published later.

A.O. 4.—Officer's Sword—New Pattern.

1. The sword described in para. 4 has been approved for adoption by officers of the following services:—

(a.) General and personal staff below the rank of general officer, except those now wearing R.E. and scimitar pattern swords.

(b.) Infantry of the Line, excluding Rifles and Highland and Scottish regiments (but these latter should adopt hilts with the new length of grip).

(c.) Army Pay Department.

(d.) Ordnance Store Department.

2. Commanding officers of the units concerned will arrange that officers now serving shall either provide themselves with swords of the new pattern or have those now in their possession rehilted, and it is recommended that the orders should be placed with one manufacturer, as the work will be thus carried out more economically.

3. Mounted officers adopting the new pattern sword will in future wear steel scabbards and steel spurs of swan-neck pattern, except in the evening, at Court, and at Levées, when brass spurs will be worn.

4. Description of the Sword.—Hilt, steel, half-basket, pierced with scroll design and Royal Cypher and Crown chased. Black fish-skin grip, bound with three strands of silver wire, back chequered to pommel with flat part near guard for the thumb, straight blade, grooved and spear-pointed.

Measurements :—

Blade, full size—32½ inches long and 1 inch wide at the shoulder.

Hilt—total length, 5½ to 5¾ inches.

Grip—total length, 5 inches.

Weight—from 1 lb. 11 oz. to 1 lb. 12 oz., without scabbard.

5. The Dress Regulations, 1894, will be amended accordingly.

A.O. 5.—Staff College—Final Examination.

1. A list of officers who have graduated at the Staff College, arranged in regimental order, is given below.
2. Those officers who have not received other orders, and whose units are not in India, will join their respective units (or depôts, should the units be abroad) on or before the 1st February next, and will be considered on leave of absence up to the date they join. They will do duty with their units or depôts, as the case may be, until the 3rd March, when they will report themselves to the general officer commanding at Aldershot, with a view to completing the course prescribed by the Staff College Regulations.
3. Those officers whose units are in India, and who have not received other instructions, will hold themselves in readiness to embark in February next, and will complete the course under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief in that country.

TO MILITARY MEN & OTHERS.

S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfectly Waterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be affected so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and dirt for many hours, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article will be restored without any fresh application of the Blacking, or more than one minute's attention; after five or six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rub (daily) with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the polish for some time. This Blacking will be found equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

Sold by all Saddlers, Grocers, and Oilmen.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6*d.* a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

[ISSUED AS A SPECIAL ARMY ORDER ON THE 23RD JANUARY 1896.]

The Commander-in-Chief has received the Queen's commands to direct on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Colonel His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg, K.G., son-in-law of Her Majesty the Queen, that the officers of the Army be required to wear, when in uniform, a band of black crape round the left arm, as prescribed by the regulations.

The mourning will commence from the 23rd January, and be continued until the 13th February next.

A.O. 29.—Royal Military Tournament.

The Seventeenth Annual Royal Military Tournament will be held at the Royal Agricultural Hall, London, N., from Thursday the 28th May next, to Thursday the 11th June, both dates inclusive. Copies of rules and regulations, and the necessary entry forms, can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary, 2, Great Scotland Yard, S.W.

A.O. 30.—Field Service.—Books, Army Forms, and Stationery.

Officers commanding units at home, who in peace hold stationary boxes (para. 2 of the instructions accompanying the Tables of Books, Army Forms, and Stationery required on Mobilization, issued with Army Order 92 of 1894) will be held responsible that the contents of these boxes, as detailed in the above-mentioned tables, are at all times in their possession, so that on mobilization being ordered no demands for books, army forms, or stationery, should be necessary.

The general officer commanding will arrange so that all infantry within reach of a gymnasium shall undergo by companies an annual course of gymnastics. Both officers and men will be subjected to a medical examination—all those with rupture or a tendency to it, being excused the course. The company, with its officers, will then be detailed to attend the gymnasium every alternate day for one hour. The duration of the course is not to be less than 12 working days, but this may be prolonged at the discretion of the general officer commanding, at out-stations or in other garrisons where the duties are light. Company officers are to take part in the exercises with their men. Cavalry soldiers and mounted men of other corps need not be put through this course.

17. Officers and men above 30 years of age need not go through the course unless they so desire.

TO MILITARY MEN & OTHERS.

S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfectly Waterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be affected so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and dirt for many hours, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article will be restored without any fresh application of the Blacking, or more than one minute's attention; after five or six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rub (daily) with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the polish for some time. This Blacking will be found equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

Sold by all Saddlers, Grocers, and Oilmen.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6*d.* a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
